ists to assist him, and is digging away as fast as steam and three men can sink a six inch hole. He knows at just what depth he will find oil and just the quantity he will find.

The two Tombstone justices had a spat today which, although it looked ominous for a time, resulted in no great damage. The trouble grew out of a suit commenced in Justice Koska's court by James Reilly against Justice Duncan. No blood was shed, although it was not the fault of the participants. Frank Broad places both of the justices under arrest, but does not know what to do with his white elephants.

Chas. R. Wores of Tucson, proprietor of the Tucson Sampling Works, is in Tombstone. Mr. Wores represents the Selby Smelting Co. of San Francisco. He will remain in Tombstone several days and wants any kind of lead or dry ore. Chlorides which have ore to dispose of can not do better than to interview Mr. Wores. Quick returns are a most important feature of his dealings. He samples ore at Tucson and pays for it there. Parties desiring to go with their shipments are welcome and can receive their check and return the next day. Mr. Wores is at the Palace.

Robert Downey has found in the Hualapai on the Pima county a spot which appears to be an immensely rich copper deposit. He was in Tucson yesterday with samples, which he said at the university. They gave a result 61 percent copper and 10 percent silver per ton. It is believed that this mine was the one to which the big pill at Mission San Jose was made and which has been reported with Downey's discovery. He went back to his claims today to work on them.

On a Mountain Top.

Flagstaff is rejoicing over its victory in capturing Professor Douglas and his heavier snipe. The professor, when he came here, wanted an altitude of 4300 feet, but has accepted one of nearly if not quite twice that altitude. The Sun says that the site selected for the observatory is south of the Arizona Cattle Co's ranch, on what is locally known as Crater mountain, and the work will commence at once.

The material for the erection of the building has been ordered, and the work of building the road to the top of the mountain will commence at once.

The Complexion of a Chinese

Is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed the chronic form. The eyeballs of the sufferer assume a saffron hue, there is a dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick headaches usually but not always occur and there is sometimes dizziness on arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendants of this very common ailment, always in its aggravated form, liable to breed abscesses of the liver, which is very dangerous. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters wholly eradicates it, as well as the troubles complicated with and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the Bitters, the liver is seriously involved. This fine alternative tonic removes costiveness and in digestion, rheumatic, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.

TWO STANDARDS.

The Captain's Little Practical Joke on His Passengers. Jones of a "practical" order are usually dangerous in one way or another, but a story is told of one harmless joke which illustrated the power of imagination in an amusing way some years ago.

At the time when most of the North river ships came in at Coenties slip, the Levant, a packet from Fishkill anchored off the Battery to wait for a change of tide. A passenger who had been for the first time in his life on a sailing vessel, and who had been anxiously waiting to see the city, not knowing that the vessel was at anchor, was told at last that he might take the helm.

He obeyed the summons with alacrity, and listened to the captain's cautions in regard to keeping clear of other vessels and so forth, and then the captain went below.

NOT RECALD.

The Unaffected Gracefulness of Queen Victoria of England.

When Queen Victoria and Prince Albert made their first visit to Edinburgh they were received with great enthusiasm. All the country for miles around poured into the city that day, and of course some amusing occurrences resulted.

A gentleman living near Edinburgh said to his farm servant: "Well, John, did you see the queen?" "I did that, sir."

"Well, what do you think of her?" "In truth, sir, I was terrible 'fear'd afore she came forward; my heart was most in my mouth; but when she did come forward I was not 'fear'd at all. I just looked at her and she looked at me, and she bowed her head at me and I bowed my head at her."

Tytler, the historian, says that he with others was awaiting one morning in the corridor at Windsor when the queen came in, bowing most graciously, and having by the hand the prince of Wales, "trotting on, looking happy and merry."

When she came to where Mr. Tytler stood, and saw him "bowing and looking delighted" at the little prince, she said to the boy: "Make a bow, sir." When the queen said this the duke of Cambridge and the rest stood still, and the little prince, walking straight up to me, made a bow, smiling all the while, and holding out his hand, which I immediately took, and bowing low, kissed it.

"The queen," he adds, "smiled affectionately on the little prince, for the gracious way in which he bowed himself."

Mrs. Capt. Smith—"And you think any soldier can be fearless?" Col. Stanton—"Yes, all he has to do is to keep out of 'danjah, madam."

"Do not want to know how to tell which is your left foot so you won't make any more mistakes?" asked the corporal of a member of the Seventh regiment squad which he was drilling. "Yes," was the reply. "I'd like to know very much." "Well, don't move your right foot." The other one is your left foot.—Chicago Army Magazine.

Between county division and county seat removal, Cochise county will retain its normal condition. The county divisionists are opposed to county seat removal, and the county seat removalists are opposed to county division. The adherents of both schemes are active, which insures a family quarrel, out of which failures always come.

MEXICAN cattle men are strongly opposed to the reciprocal arrangement by which American cattle men are to be allowed to pasture their cattle on Mexican soil and return them to American soil without the payment of custom duties. They are entering strong protests at the City of Mexico. They claim that they have everything to lose and nothing to gain by such a condition.

SILVER is quoted today a cent higher than yesterday. When it goes up it climbs by the straight and narrow path, but when it comes down it falls from the topmost story with a sickening thud.

MARIE SMITH has written a letter to M. E. Collins of Phoenix, which states that the only drawback to Arizona's admission is the question of her political standing. It is asserted that our territory is democratic and our admission is only a matter of a few weeks.

COXEY and company are going to make it decidedly uncomfortable for congress during the next month. It is believed that 50,000 men will congregate in Washington and will have to be fed. The government will be obliged to issue them rations. That done, Uncle Sam will have to keep on feeding them or give them work. It is a peculiar state of affairs.

The proclamation issued at Washington concerning the Coxeyites declares that no good can come of such a gathering, and forbids soliciting alms or the making of orations or assembling in the streets, and declares all such crimes will be summarily dealt with and the laws rigidly enforced. But Coxey keeps right on selling his race horses and blowing in his money on his army.

The new newspaper enterprise at Benson will receive a hearty welcome, not only in that town but through the county. Mr. Bird, the editor, will have his plant, which has been used at Arizona, to Benson. His agreement with the Benson people is that it will not intermeddle with politics. A paper in the northern part of the county is bound to succeed. Mr. Bird is an able writer and a man of good sense. He will not maintain a narrow policy of speaking but will represent all sections of the county, but will be in hand with the Phoenix for Coxey, one and inseparable. Though he will battle for a forlorn hope, that of moving the county seat, will be a valuable acquisition to the section of the territory.

EDITOR RO-KWATER of the Omaha has been sentenced to jail for contempt of court by Judge Scott. For his sentence, which was for a libel published in his paper, Mr. Ro-Kwater was allowed to say a few words. He said:

I had rather rot in forty jails or prisons than surrender what has been fought for by the fathers of this republic, which includes the liberty of the press to criticize public servants and the courts are public servants as much as any other class—from a candidate to a representative in the legislative halls in the capital at Lincoln and Washington. I shall cheerfully submit to this ordeal. It will not hurt me. If there is anything that I am guilty of, if I have been guilty of contempt at all, it is the contempt of my fellow citizens for helping Colonel Scott to become judge of this district.

SENATOR STEWART aptly says that the Coxey uprising is the natural outcome of the policy of the "gold anarchists."

NEW YORK will never furnish this country with another president. Aspirants for the highest office in the gift of the people will be compelled to move westward to maintain a shadow of a chance to realize their cherished hopes.

COXEY'S army is being augmented by the enlistment of women, and congressmen who contemplated fleeing upon Coxey's advent in Washington are now determined to stay and welcome his sunburnt and sunbonnet brigade.

CAMPAIGN newspapers are springing into existence all over the territory. If they would pay attention to anything beside politics they would do some good, whereas they in the majority of cases do only harm by advocating principles for revenue only.

The silver question is rapidly approaching a crisis. Before another year rolls by the vexed problem will have been settled favorably. No man who owns property in Tombstone need feel concerned over his future prospects. Each day brings us nearer to the goal of good times.

The Phoenix Herald announces that if the tariff bill becomes a law Mexican cattle, fat and cheap, will be thrown on the market, and utter its protest against it. A tenderloin steak "cheap and fat" is what the people are after in these days of decayed teeth, weak jaws and empty purses. By all means, pass the Wilson bill.

Kelly when shown an Associated Press dispatch telling of the fight at Bilings was deeply affected. "This is awful," he said. "I fear our cause is ruined. Bloodshed is wrong. Resistance to the authorities is wrong. It is all wrong. We are now reduced to the level of a mob. The militia may be called out at any moment to stop our progress. This gives them an excuse to regard us as lawless. I would give my life to have this day's work undone."

A sheriff's posse from New Mexico arrested two horse-thieves near Duncan, from a range near White Oaks, Lincoln county, New Mexico. About fifty horses were taken by the thieves, but many gave out on rough trails, and others had been traded.

Bland says he will try to have the committee vote on the free-coinage bill Thursday. Once reported, the bill becomes privileged. Bland says he does not think the Meyer bill will be germane as a substitute for the free-silver bill, owing to the bond feature.

Two Interpretations.

A young farmer who had been converted at one of the revivals went before the next conference and asked for a license to be a preacher. "I know I am born to preach the word," said the applicant, "for I have had three visions, all the same, and it has made a lasting impression on me." "What was your vision?" asked a bishop. "Well, I saw a big, round, blue ring in the sky, and inside in great gold letters, were 'P. C.' It meant 'Preach Christ,' and I want to join the conference." The argument was about to carry when an old pastor stood up in the back part of the hall and said: "Young man, we don't look at your intentions, nor do we doubt you saw the vision with the golden 'P. C.' but I am of the opinion that 'P. C.' meant 'Pious Corn.'" The convert is still a farmer.—Cincinnati Times Star.
